

UNIVERSITY STUDENT PERMIT PARKING FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

NEW PILOT – Blue Parking Permit Pilot Program

For academic year 2023 – 2024, Transportation and Parking Services is launching a pilot parking program “Blue Parking Permit” for commuter graduate students.

- The program provides commuter graduate students with a lower cost semester parking option at the less convenient location of the CRC Deck located on the Clairmont Campus.
- It is a first come/first served basis and is limited to 200 commuter graduate students.

Eligibility: Commuter Graduate Students

Parking Rate: $190 per semester (fall and spring) – student account billing

Location: CRC Deck (click here for map)

FAQs

1. What if I want to change to the daily parking rate? Contact parking@emory.edu to change from the Blue Parking Permit to the daily parking rate permit. A pro-rated refund will be applied to your student account based on the date returned.
2. If I change to the daily parking rate program, where will I be assigned to park? Your parking assigned location will depend on availability and waitlist status.
3. If I return my permit, will I receive a refund? A pro-rated refund will be applied to your student account based on the date the permit is returned. If a switch is made to the daily permit program, a pro-rated refund will be applied to your student account based on the date the switch is made.
4. Will there be a waitlist for the Blue Parking Permit program? Once the program reaches 200 participants, a waitlist will be established.
5. Are there options for closer parking after hours? Many parking decks are available for parking after 4 pm Monday – Friday and on Saturday and Sunday. Go here each decks operating hours.
6. Why are the number of Blue permits limited? There is a limited supply of parking. The available permit allocation is based on occupancy demand.
